Victory is a continuous process and the momentum should be maintained: Bangladesh High Commissioner

The War of Liberation is like a Compass for the evolution of Bangladesh and its progress and it is important to connect the younger generation with this important landmark of our history. It is also important to remember that victory is a continuous process and the momentum should be maintained. Indeed, during the last 35 years of its existence, Bangladesh has repeatedly proved that this is very much possible. Bangladesh High Commissioner H.E. Mr. M. Humayun Kabir made these remarks during a discussion meeting at the High Commission organized to celebrate the Victory Day of Bangladesh this morning. He also called upon the expatriate Bangladeshi community to work for innovation in thoughts and to convey the objective image of the nation before the international community, particularly in the context of the present globalized world. He assured that the High Commission was ready to work with the members of the Bangladesh community in this pursuit.

During the discussion, President of the Bangladesh Australia Association Canberra Inc. Mr. Abdul Quader, Dr. Abed Chaudhury, Dr. Sadequr Rahman, Dr. Iftikhar Mostafa, Mrs. Alice Quader, Mr. Anamul Bhuiyan Mukul, Col. Aziz, Mrs. Saquiba Rahman Mitul, Major Ahmed Imran, Mr. Borhan Uddin Shafi, Dr. Rezaul Haque Mridha, Mr. Moinul Haque, spoke on the occasion highlighting the significance of the Victory Day. All the speakers emphasized on national unity and consensus on important national issues to implement the dreams and aspirations of our independence. The speakers paid rich homage to the martyrs of the liberation war and prayed for the salvation of their departed souls. Ms. Nahida Rahman Shumona, First Secretary of the High Commission, conducted the discussion session.

Earlier, the High Commissioner hoisted National Flag at the High Commission. Message of the Hon'ble President Professor Dr. Iajuddin Ahmed was read out by Mr. Mohammed Fahimul Islam, Second Secretary of the High Commission. Officers, officials and a large number of members of Bangladesh community living in Canberra were present during the flag hoisting ceremony and in the follow-up discussion programme.
