Amia Motin: A versatile expatriate Bangladeshi singer

NAZMUS SAQUIB

mia Motin is a prolific Bangladeshi female singer who is living in Australia since 1996. Although Ashe is living in Australia, but her heart lies here in Bangladesh. She is taking active part in Bangla music worldwide in whatever way she possibly could. Being born in a culturally oriented family, she has passion for singing from her childhood. When she was in Dhaka, she did a course on music from Nazrul Parishad. So far she has performed in Germany, Norway, America and various other parts of the world. This year the singer is all set to appear in three audio albums. Her first album has been composed by noted lyricist and composer Sheikh Saadi Khan. The second one has been composed by another veteran music composer Basu Dev. The third one is a duet album where Amia has shared her voice with celebrated singer Subir Nondi.

Besides Amia has in five audio albums already which had been released from different banners.
