A smile depends on fun

Living, laughing and loving

All these depend on fun

Fun is the light of the sun

It's time to wake up

Eat, entertain and elaborate

Living is so much fun, it never falls

It's like developing your morning tea cup

Hear it, feel it and admire it

Let all your feelings out, loudly and happily

It sounds nice, enjoying and peaceful

When something is funny, you laugh and commit a happy pit

You care, you think and feel

You're friends, family and what you're fond of

You begin to have fun when you love
I am happy and I smile when I have fun with the real

So the life, the happiness and care
It contains all the fabulous fun that there is
I live, I enjoy. I laugh, I smile. I love, because I care
It's always fun when we, walk on air
