

Bangladesh Australia Disaster Relief Committee

Conclusion of BADRC flood appeal campaign

Press release: Bangladesh Australia Disaster Relief Committee (BADRC) recently launched a Flood Appeal Campaign to raise funds for the affected community by the devastating floods in NSW and QLD. The campaign was successfully concluded. The total amount raised was $8506 and has been transferred to Vinnie's Flood Appeal account which has been distributed to the flood-affected communities as per Vinnie's schedule. The international charity Organisation Vinnies was our official partner to distribute the collections to the affected families.

BADRC acknowledges the heartfelt and generous support of the Bangladeshi community residing in Australia, especially in Greater Sydney. BADRC expresses special appreciation and thanks to those individuals and the organization who came forward to donate generously. The Australian Muslim Welfare Centre, the Krishibid Australia, the Eastern Sydney Islamic Welfare Services Inc, the Ma Care group, and the Clove Restaurant namely are in the front of the donation lists as community organizations.

Bangla -Sydney.com, sydneybashi -Bangla.com, the Ekushe Boi Mela, and the Ausbangla media group were also at the forefront to circulate the flood Appeal to the community.

BADRC also acknowledges their heartfelt support.

BADRC is taking this opportunity to acknowledge also the individuals, the organizations, and the groups who actively supported our previous various appeals.

Bangladesh Medical Society, Bangabandhu Council, Deputy.com, and Ahmed Enterprise, Muktamancha, beedeshbangla, to name a few.

As a token of this combined effort, The Vinnie's issued an Appreciation letter to Bangladesh Australia Disaster Relief Committee which is attached.

BADRC would like to thank you all for being behind this successful Flood Appeal Campaign - "Together We Shine".

We look forward to your continued support towards BADRC's objectives and programs.
