

First Glimpse of Bengali Interface of Windows XP and Windows Digital Media Wave

American Association of Bangladeshi engineers & Architects (AABEA) is pleased to present an exclusive preview of the upcoming Bangla Windows from Microsoft. Our guest from AABEA-Seattle, Shakil Ahmed will be gathering feedback to take back to the Microsoft team. This is the first of a series of technology-related events hosted by AABEA Silicon Valley Chapter. The demonstration will also be available via live web-conferencing.

[Details]

"BENGALI WINDOWS AND MORE: First Glimpse of Bengali Interface of Windows XP and Windows Digital Media Wave".

By Shakil M. Ahmed
Microsoft Corporation
GTPS (Global Technology Platform Service)
Windows OS Client-International QA

Date & time: 09 April'05, Saturday, 4:00-6:00pm

Venue: Genus Corporation, 1139 Karlstad Dr, Sunnyvale, CA 94089

Online attendance: The event will be delivered via web conferencing from Microsoft Office Live Meeting and AABEA Seattle Chapter efforts. Please contact info@aabea.org to register and the url will be provided. Please come by and participate in a discussion on the future of Bangla computing.

[Other Agenda]

During this program, we will provide brief updates of the different programs of AABEA, including the AABEA Internship Program, JRCASE, and BIBC. With Microsoft Technology support, we will also launch our online Technical Training program.

[Future Events]

June - Networking: VoIP Technology and Business
August - Semiconductor: Industry Opportunities
October - Software: The BIBC Experience + Animation
December - Semiconductor: JRCASE

For questions: please contact zeeshan@best.com or info@aabea.org