

Maheema Tasnim Haque (9) of Grade 4 from Bradbury Public School won the first prize in the Ramadan Awareness Campaign (RAC) Poetry Competition conducted by Islamic Council of New South Wales. The theme of the poetry was "TONGUE". Maheema will be awarded the prize on the 11th of December, Sunday at a ceremony at Lidcombe campus of UNSW. Maheema's parents are Dr. Tofazzel Haque and Mrs. Salma Haque of Blair Athol, Sydney.

Maheema Haque

The Tongue

The tongue is an important part of you
And so is your heart too
Without the tongue we would not be able to taste
Mmmm the yummy puff pastry paste
Without the tongue we would not be able to feel texture
Of the delicious chocolate cake mixture.

Our tongue is always a need
It helps us speak aloud when we read
We can do our religious things all nice
And with our tongue we can give good advice!