

Winter

Maheema Haque (9)

The snow's falling
And mum's calling
"Come in here or you'll freeze!"
And at that very moment, I sneeze!!!

Withered trees sway from side to side
Dropping the dry leaves far and wide
In the garden in our backyard
Brrrrrrr! It's so cold; I might need a body guard!

I think my brother actually, tried
To get near the heater to get himself fried
Else who would watch soccer?
"Germany 2006" in an odd freezing Night?

I am chilled almost killed from head to toe
No wonder winter is summer's foe!
